Delegations At Coliseum

Members of the congregations at Alondra Park Methodist Church and Calvary Baptist Church were among more than 29,000 persons who attended the Sunday services at the Billy Graham Crusade. The two churches sent both adult and youth delegations.

The Graham Crusade has been attended by more than 150,000 persons to date, with about four per cent of the persons listed as inquirers.

The two local delegations were among some 300 group-sponsored delegations in attendance at the Sunday afternoon services in the Coliseum.

'Mind' Title For Sunday's Bible Lesson

"Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?" This passage from Job will be part of the responsive reading this Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist.

The Bible Lesson is entitled "Mind."

One of the corresponding references from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be "When the divine precepts are understood, they unfold the foundation of fellowship, in which one mind is not at war with another, in accordance with the Scriptural command: 'Let this Mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.'"

"They're a well-matched couple. She's a pill and he's a hypochondriac."
